

Harold Parker

Harold Parker Sr., 44, of 415 N. Goodwin St., a Republican candidate for Fourth Ward alderman, manages Harold's Club and has real estate in the ward.

A resident of Peoria 37 years, he attended Douglas grade school and Peoria High School.

He said that if elected he would "work to advance the well-being and growth of Peoria, and give ward residents an honest and impartial representation in our city administration."

Parker is a member of the Knights of Pythias.

Geirude Crockett

Geirude Crockett of 808 Fisher St., running as a Republican candidate for 4th Ward alderman, is a 43-year-old laborer.

He was an assistant precinct committeeman in the 17th precinct in 1958, worked for the late Sheriff Harry Backes at his headquarters, and under Justice of the Peace Carl Fry, at Republican headquarters in 1956.

He has lived in Peoria virtually his entire life. He has a high school education. He is a member of the Elks lodge.

If elected, Crockett says he wants to see "industry brought into Peoria, a reduction in taxes, more jobs in Springfield, and abolishment of personal taxes."

DEMOCRATIC

Clayton Branan

Clayton Branan, 65-year-old salesman, of 503 Evans St., says he is running for Fourth Ward alderman to give the city "good government." He is a Democratic candidate.

He is married and the father of three children. He has lived in Peoria 25 years and has a high school education.

BRANNAN

Henry Warfield

Henry M. Warfield, 44, of 445 W. Seventh St., a Democratic candidate for Fourth Ward alderman, is a trucker at Caterpillar Tractor Co.

He is presently serving on the grievance committee of Local 974, UAW, and has been on the bargaining committee at Caterpillar for 10 years.

He has been a resident of Peoria 43 years, and was graduated from Peoria High school.

He is president of the Community Helper's Club.

If elected he says he will "try to urge new industry to come to Peoria, and also create new jobs."

WARFIELD

date for Fourth ward alderman, says that if elected his chief objective will be to cut the cost of city government.

A resident of Peoria 51 years, Wilkinson has served 14 years on the county board of supervisors. He is a past board chairman and has served on the principal committees.

He operates the Pour House tavern, and is a property owner in the city.

Wilkinson is married and has a son attending Peoria High School. He, himself, graduated from Manual Training High school. He is a member of the American Legion, of the 40 & 8, and the Masons.

Among his other aims, if elected to the city council, Wilkinson says he wants to give the businessmen and people of the Fourth ward equal representation.

Joe J. Miller

Joc J. Miller, 62, of 813 Monson St., Republican candidate for Fourth ward alderman, was a precinct committeeman from 1952 to 1956. He is a maintenance man by occupation, has been a lifelong resident of Peoria, and has a high school education.

Dr. James W. Ross

Dr. James W. Ross of 504 W. Fourth Ave. says he is seeking a post as Fourth Ward alderman "to give some of my time, service, training, qualifications and experiences to make Peoria a better and more desirable place to live."

A physician and surgeon, Dr. Ross is a candidate for alderman on the Republican ticket.

He was a teacher and high school principal for five years, and township physician for one year in Saline County. His wife is a registered nurse. They have one child living.

Dr. Ross has lived in Peoria 15 years. He was graduated from college with a B.S. degree and had four years of medicine, receiving an M.D. degree.

He is a member of the Methodist Church and of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Lee Wagener

Lee Wagener, 58, of 110 Roanoke Ave., a Republican candidate for Fourth Ward alderman, is a heating and sheet metal contractor.

He has lived in Peoria 28 years and is a home owner. He is married. He has a college education.

Wagener is a member of the Peoria Association of Commerce, Creve Coeur Club, Knights of Columbus, and Mt. Hawley Country Club.

WILKINSON

ROSS

WAGENER

Fourth Ward REPUBLICAN

Julius Harrison

Julius Harrison, 53-year-old resident of the Jefferson hotel who is a Republican candidate for Fourth ward alderman, is a contracting and land subdivider. He is seeking his first elective office.

He was born in Peoria and is a property owner here. He is not married. He has a public school and business training.

He says that if HARRISON elected he wants "to help attract new industry, will work for fair zoning, and seek to improve streets, sidewalks, and alleys." He pledges "prompt attention and service at all times when called upon by 4th ward residents on matters that will make that ward and the city a better place in which to live."

Harrison said he would "resolve matters coming before the council on the basis of doing the best good for Peoria and Peoria's welfare, at all times. He says he stands for "sound fiscal policy in governmental operation."

He is a member of the Second Ward Republican and South Side Republican clubs.

Walter Wilkinson

Walter J. Wilkinson, 62, of Glen Oak Towers, a Republican candi-