

the Center.....

ight:
us,
ional

Golden Age Club membership begins at 60, provides fun and relaxation for senior members of the Center.

LEFT: Basketball draws boys of all ages for wholesome recreation and sportsmanship. A plot of ground, two or more boys, a pocket full of marbles.... and a sleepy-eyed pet dog!

r, with rist-

Student Council, comprised of representatives from local high schools, maintains standards for youth in Center, fosters various activities.

Carnival time means fun and craftshows. BELOW: Calypso songs and dances are part of a student show.

RIGHT: Over the years Drama clubs have provided interesting programs. BELOW RIGHT: Quiet relaxation is available to youth and adults alike.

Cherub Choir: Ages 6 to 12 receive regular singing instruction and present various programs.

Journal Transcript, 11/30/43, p. 1

SPORTS

Gameroom Activity

Old Timers Basketball Squad – 1953 – 54

The Lions Squad

Cherub Choir Rehearsal

DRAMA

Modern Dance Class – 1954

Mother's Day Operetta by Cherub Choir – 1954

Services to Community Groups – Masonic Banquet

“THE REVENGE OF THE PIRATES” – Junior Theatre

CLUBS

The LAGS – Basketball Squad

Polio Benefit sponsored by the WILDCATS – 1952

Boy Scout Troop No. 38

Youth Forum Banquet Dance

MUSIC

Youth Chorus

Rhythm Rockets Rehearsal – 1946

The Blue Dukes – 1953

Peoria Transportation Club Thanksgiving Dinner – 1953

The House on Globe Street – Yesterday's Center
1922

A Musical Float for the "53" Community Chest
Parade

A Decade of Progress in services to youth and Adults

Expansion in the field of human relations by the Youth Council Fellowship program.

The Center Today – 1954