

NOV 8 - 1957

SWINGING INTO ACTION are the Silcons, one of eight singing acts which will be seen along with a dance group and band in "Broadway's Best," a show to be presented at 8:30 p.m. today and Saturday at Carver Community Center. Shown giving out with a song are (left to right), Riney Bryson, 13, J. C. Burford, 13, Leon Watkins, 12, and Donald Marberry, 9. The show, comprised of performers in the 9 to 18 age group, is a Youth Theater Guild production under the direction of Juliette Whittaker.